U.S. Reds Are Indicted for Not Registering

By LARRY OSIUS

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Communist party of the United States has been indicted for failing to register as an agent of the Soviet Union. Conviction could cost thousands of dollars in fines.

The indictment was returned Friday by a federal grand jury at the request of the Justice Department. The 12-count charge accuses the party of failing to register by Nov. 20 as required by the Subversive Activities Control Act of 1950. The act was upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court earlier this year after a 10-year court battle between the party and the government.

In announcing the action, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said the party apparently has been beating a hasty retreat underground in anticipation of the indictment.

Future indictments against party officers and party members also are possible. The law requires party officials to register Nov. 30, which they did not do. Party members are supposed to register by Dec. 20.

If convicted, the Communist party could be fined $10,000 for each day of nonregistration. Party officers could be fined $10,000 a day and sentenced to five years in prison for each day. And if party members ignore the party members ignore the December deadline, they could be subject to similar fines and prison sentences.

There are believed to be about 10,000 party members in the United States at the present time.

There was no comment from Communist party leaders.

2 Officers Exonerated at the Spa

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The Civil Service Commission today exonerated two more Hot Springs policemen of any connection with a burglary Oct. 26.

The commission suspended Bobby Digby and Euell Smith for 30 days and placed them on probation for an additional six months.

Commission Chairman Gabe Crawford said the action taken was for conduct unbecoming an officer, but was in no way connected with the burglary of the Plaza Liquor Store.

Nature of the alleged unbecoming conduct was not disclosed.

Five officers were suspended after the Commission began an investigation.

Lt. Henry Hogg and Patrolman Joel Wall were restored to duty after a previous hearing.

Patrolman D. L. White was discharged from the force and has since been charged in Municipal Court with accepting stolen property.

George Warren, a merchant policeman, has been charged with larceny for allegedly taking $20 from the liquor store.

The commission held a hearing on Digby and Smith Thursday night. It lasted until early today, and the commission announced a decision later today.

The court cases of White and Warren are pending.

Department Store Sales Are Up

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Department store sales in the 8th Federal Reserve District showed a general increase for the four weeks ending Nov. 25, with only Memphis and Little Rock registering declines.

Louisville sales were up 10 per cent over the comparable period a year ago and St. Louis showed a six per cent gain. Overall sales in the district rose five per cent.

Sales were down four per cent in Memphis and two per cent in Little Rock.

Total sales in the district, plus the figures posted by Louisville and St. Louis, reflect reports by a greater number of stores than during the comparable period a year ago.

Figures for the year to date show Louisville sales up seven per cent and St. Louis at same level as last year. Memphis and Little Rock figures indicate a four per cent decrease and total sales in the district are the same as during the similar period of 1960.

Ruling Against L. R. Doctor

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—U.S. District Judge Gordon E. Young ruled Thursday that James W. Bockman, 62, of Little Rock, had failed to make a case for reinstatement of his eclectic license to practice medicine.

Bockman formerly practiced at West Helena and West Memphis. He contended that the state Medical Board revoked his license in 1957 because he is Jewish.

"The Medical Board denied this and said it revoked the license because Bockman never graduated from the Kansas City College of Medicine and Surgery as he represented when he obtained the license.

Trial of Bockman's suit was held in federal District Court Nov. 22, and Judge Young ruled Thursday.

Conway Census

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—A special official census made last month showed Conway's population at 12,500. Mayor Edgar Parker said Thursday. The 1960 census showed 9,774 and the 1950 census showed 8,810. An annexation took in many new residents.

Mystery Why Khrushchev Has Quieted

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev, despite all the heat over Berlin, have kept their own personal relationship as restrained as a minute.

Nevertheless, the No. 1 mystery is why Khrushchev has quieted down.

The meeting between the two men in Vienna last June 3-4 was, on the surface, a pleasant session in which they sought to know each other. Underneath it was about as tough as a meeting can be.

It was there, face to face with Kennedy, that Khrushchev began the Berlin crisis by demanding the city be henceforth "free." He predicted the eventual triumph of communism through wars of "liberation."

For months afterward Khrushchev worked overtime to force Kennedy back on his heels with speeches, talks, bomb-warnings, building the Berlin wall and, finally, resuming nuclear tests.

Kennedy, reporting on his meeting when he returned home, said the United States would stand firm. He added that Khrushchev should not be blamed for all the world's troubles, outlined a program to resist communism everywhere, and began a military buildup.

Since then Kennedy has talked repeatedly of his determination not to let Khrushchev get away with Berlin.

But never, in all this long-range and often long-winded dialogue, has either man said an unfriendly or derogatory word about the other. This has left the door open for future reasonable dealings.

Khrushchev even sent his newspaperman son-in-law, Alexei Adzhubei, over here to interview Kennedy at White House request, giving the President a chance to state his position in full in the Russian government newspaper, Izvestia.

Khrushchev had the same relationship with President Eisenhower until the American U-2 spy plane, brought down over Russia, embarrassed him. Then he belittled Eisenhower and broke up the 1960 summit meeting.

In the current situation, this is the big puzzler.

Why Khrushchev, from about the time the 22nd Communist Party congress met in Moscow last October, suddenly quieted down on Berlin and even postponed indefinitely the deadline for a settlement which he wanted by January.

The bride-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Robert Muldown of Redding, announced the engagement Thursday.

Some Fallout Did Escape

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission says some radioactivity was released into the atmosphere by one of its underground nuclear blasts. The amount was described as slight. The explosion was conducted at the Nevada test site Sept. 15. A short time after it, the commission said, "there was a brief release of steam from the tunnel mouth, following which low levels of radioactivity were detected in the vicinity of the test site."

Blue Troop Program on Secret Data

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Army major says the "Pro-Blue" troop education program he prepared for Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker was based on secret cold war directives, not on the texts of the militarily conservative John Birch Society.

Maj. Arch E. Roberts said Thursday night he drafted the program at Walker's direction and in conformity with a classified cold war directive which we received from 7th Army headquarters.

Roberts delivered a 29-page address, most of it taken from the Congressional Record, before some 90 members of the Washington chapter of Young American for Freedom.

The address had not been cleared in advance by the Defense Department. The Army said Roberts, former public information officer for Walker, would be responsible for seeing that his talk conformed with security regulations and a memorandum issued by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara on speeches by military men.

Roberts, in civilian clothes, told a newsman before delivering his address that although the Army had not approved it "they haven't disapproved it."

The Army said it didn't have time to check the speech.

Walker quit the Army Nov. 2, saying he wanted to be free to speak out against communism. He had been relieved last spring as commander of the 24th Infantry Division in Germany. Later, he was admonished by the Army for making what it termed "inflammatory and derogatory remarks" about prominent Americans, and, it said, for trying to influence the votes of his men and their families in the congressional elections last year.

The general was accused as having described as "definitely pink" such Americans as former President Harry S. Truman, Eleanor Roosevelt and former Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

Roberts, who says he was relieved as information officer of the 24th Division because he wrote letters defending Walker, now is stationed at Ft. Lee, Va.

Roberts' address came almost entirely from the Aug. 30 Congressional Record. It consisted of excerpts from lectures given to soldiers under Walker's "Citizens in Service" and "Pro-Blue" programs. The material was inserted in the record by Sens. Strom Thurmond, D-Sc., and John G. Tower, R-Tex.

Tunney's Son Is Married

REDDING, Conn. (AP)—Gene Lauder Tunney, son of Gene Tunney, former world heavyweight champion, and Miss Ann Carroll Muldown will be married in January.

The bride-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Robert Muldown of Redding, announced the engagement Thursday.

Says Wage-Price Controls Out

BAL HARBOUR, Fla. (AP)—Wage-price controls are out of the question at the present time, says Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg.

He told reporters at labor union meetings here Thursday that despite expressed union fears of possible control, the administration has none in mind.

Instead, Goldberg said, President Kennedy is depending upon voluntary reasonableness on the part of both labor and management in setting wages and prices.

put up the wall shutting off West Berlin from East Berlin—and the West failed to do anything about it—he had won a major point anyway and could relax.

Meaning: He wanted to make the West acknowledge that communism completely controls East Germany and East Berlin—and the West isn't going to do anything about it. By bowing to the reality of the wall, the West admitted his point.

Any suggestion about Khrushchev's motive for quieting down on Berlin is sheer guessing. Here is another: That when he Lingerie for Christmas giving offers fabric news as well as beauty. Quilted robe (left) offers weightless warmth and long wear because of its dacron filling. Brilliant blossoms (center) on a sleep shift of snowy dacron make any Christmas morning bright. Fragile-appearing gown (right) is really the last word in practicality. Fabric is a new blend of nylon, silk and dacron that looks and feels a great deal like crepe de chine. It is completely washable.

Saturday, Dec. 2

Stewardess Boards No. 1 and 2 of BeBe Memorial church will sponsor a fish fry in the basement of the church Saturday, Dec. 2 beginning at 7 p.m. Free coffee will be served. A basket of groceries will be given as a door prize. Everybody's invited.

Was it the sight of Mrs. Foale that had made Philip go so rigidly expressionless?

Elizabeth Honeyman gazed critically at the address book when it was handed to her, thanked Margaret, and began moving toward the door. Nothing escaped her eye; she was open about it, moving the piano scarf a fraction straighter, sending a sharp glance at the peacock. She said to Margaret with her little twitch of a smile "Did your woman ever call again?"

Margaret had been half-prepared. "Mrs. Withers, Yes, and she seemed quite disappointed."

"Oh? I still think she's mistaken," said Mrs. Honeyman very dearly, "in thinking Isabel had a cousin so like her." She paused at the door curtain, drawing her head back a little to peer at the white folds. "You don't allow your cleaning woman to do this up, do you?"

Margaret would not have dreamed of burdening Lena with it. "No, why?"

"Hadley's mother did the lacework at the sides," said Miss Honeyman, putting out an infinitely delicate finger and thumb to what

Margaret would otherwise have thought was general wear and very fretful. "I told Isabel that she ought to have seen some sort of written authorization before she turned over Mrs. Foale's belongings so docilely. But Miss Honeyman would hardly risk such a lie ("would she?") and in any case an address book was merely that, and a postcard was open for all the world to see. Why, then, this sharp feeling of worry, as though she had forgotten something important, or made some drastic error?

Jerome Kincaid seemed to think as much when he arrived, at shortly before noon, with ice cream and a Mexican puppet for Hilary and daffodils for Margaret.

He cut through her thanks with an examining, "Sure you're not coming down with this thing yourself?" and, at her headshake,

"Well, it's doing something to you."

Sympathy would undermine her completely, so would the childish conviction that if she told Jerome Kincaid about the blood on the porch he could somehow make everything all right; that if she told him about Philip and Mrs. Foale he could dissolve that nightmare, too.

He was still looking at her clinically. "Have you a drink in the house?"

"Yes . . . in the pantry," said

Margaret, and retired to the library to collect herself. This would never do. She might involve herself with the police so that she would be detained here; she might destroy Cornelius's and Philip's marriage at a stroke. Feinly, she picked up the newspaper, brought it off the lawn by either

Miss Honeyman or Kincaid; she would distract herself briefly with that.

But she didn't. The word "Fatalities" at the bottom of the front page caught her eye. It was the toll of weekend victims in New Mexico, and she followed it tense-ly to page three. Antonia Sanchez, of Alamosa, dead when her car

collided with another on Highway

66. Andrew Begay, of Nambe Peublo, dead when his pick-up truck overturned near Pojoaque. Julio

Garcia, this city, killed by a hit-and-run driver on San Rafael

Road. A bullet had been recovered from Garcia's shoulder; police were investigating.

A Closer Walk With God

Will Lead You Right 'Straight' to Church

now unto you

... little minds, I speak with whatever wisdom age has to offer. But Paul more wisely said it, "Though I speak with the tongues of angels, and have not Charity, I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal." The wise lady offers good council but youth, it seems, must learn by experience, by precept, by example. That makes it all the more important for adult life to give its best to the basic needs of our youth. Keep good books before them; let your word of mouth be clean; make church attendance and Christian living a 'must' at your house, for, Charity must begin at home. And truly, we are as nothing without Charity. Then come with me to church, let us abide in the will of God, obey His voice and march to victory.

You In The Church
The Church In You form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs
the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker and attend services regularly.

The Churches of This Community, Are the Only Institutions Which Have as Their Main Function, the Transforming of Human Lives
They Are the Sign Boards Pointing the Way to God.

Sponsors of these messages urge faithful church support. Through this series of pages the appeal is for all men to stand up and be counted . . . to combat Communism on all front . . . to be faithful to God.

Our Ministers Are God's Servants Who Call the Signals Against the Organized Forces of Evil. They Invite You to Enlist On the Side For God . . . to Come to Church.

IF A MAN PRAYS RIGHT CAN HE LIVE WRONG
